On November 1, 2005, counsel for defendant Gibril Saw filed a letter with the court, requesting a pre-motion conference to discuss Mr. Saw's intention to file a motion for summary judgment. As per this court's individual motion practices, all non-moving parties must file a letter in response, not to exceed three (3) pages within seven (7) days from service of the notification letter. As of today, no responses have been filed. The court orders all non-moving parties to file response letters within seven (7) days of this order.

Allyne R. Ross
United States District Judge
